FINAL WEEK AT MONCREIF

JACKSONVILLE MEETING WILL COME TO A

CLOSE ON SATURDAY NEXT.

No More Stakes to Be Run and Races Are Framed to Suit Frequently Beaten Horses—Deceivable Only Winning Favorite Yesterday.

Jacksonville, Fla., April 11.—Today marked the beginning of the final week of the winter meeting at Moncreif Park. Next Saturday, the one hundred and twenty-third day of the meeting, the racing season will come to a close. The ranks of the owners have been pretty well thinned out, all but two or three of the larger stables having shipped away. Many of the regulars have left and the attendance during the closing week will, in the main, be made up of local people. There are no stake events on the program for the closing week and the conditions of a majority of the races are framed to suit the poorer class of horses.

Deceivable saved the public from utter rout at Moncreif Park this afternoon. The card was made up of seven races, a majority of which were framed to suit horses that have been beaten upon numerous occasions during the meeting. The fields lacked class and in all but one instance the winners won with plenty to spare. The closing dash furnished the best contest of the afternoon, Hooray, Great Jubilee and Edwin L. fighting it out through the last quarter, with the former first home by the smallest of margins. Tuxley and Ganz each rode two winners. Eastern owners are departing every day. J. P. Mayberry left this morning for Pinlico with Miss A. M. Marrone's horses. E. George sent along his fast sprinter, John Griffin II., and the useful three-year-old, Collis Ormsby, in the same car.

Several stables will leave for Baltimore Tuesday and Wednesday. Clint DeWitt has decided to race at Pinlico. R. Angarola, J. Fitzsimmons and J. W. Burttschell will also leave for Baltimore. As a matter of fact the pick of the horses that raced here this winter will be seen at Pinlico.

According to advices received from Canada, Judge Frank J. Bryan will be asked to officiate in the stand at several of the Canadian tracks this summer. A. B. Dade will do the starting at all of the Canadian tracks and the other officials will be virtually the same as last season.

F. J. Pons has announced that he will divide his horses and ship the best of them to New York. The balance will be sent to Salt Lake City. In the division that Mr. Pons will send to New York are Great Heavens, Jack Parker, Ben Double, Louis des Cognets, Tallahassee, Agnes May, Font and two Common two-year-olds that have not yet started. Antman Rose, winner of the fifth race, was boosted $300 over her entered price by T. M. Irvin, but was protected and bought in.

Jockey J. Henry earned a starter's suspension for the balance of the meeting for getting left at the post with Amanda Lee.

R. D. Williams has shipped La Gloria, Druid and Killiecrankie to his farm in Oklahoma, where they will be mated with John F. and Martinet. Williams will send the remainder of his horses to Hamilton on Sunday next.

C. S. Wilson purchased Coonskin of J. Stockler this morning.

J. W. Burttschell has arranged to ship his stable from here to Baltimore. He will leave on Friday. The association has purchased the horses Maximum and Harry Scott from Sam Louis, and they will be used in the work of the Florida Breeding Bureau.

MANAGEMENT DELIVERS ULTIMATUM.

Pensacola, Fla., April 11.—Former offenders, with the exception of jockey D. Murphy, were treated to an immunity bath this afternoon on their promise that for the rest of the meeting they would strictly observe the proprieties of racing. The restoration to favor of Kay Spence and jockeys Cole and Carroll was somewhat surprising, but may be explained by the fact that there is a scarcity of horses and riders here. Manager Bonnich made it plain to the horsemen this morning that future offenses would be dealt with severely when he told them: "I want the racing here to be above board and anyone who transgresses the rules will be dealt with severely. I am prolonging the meeting simply in your interest and if you cannot race without resorting to trickery, I am going to close down in short order." That the big Louisianian means every word is generally accepted.

Ladies' Day served to contribute an increased attendance. The sport was ordinary and short-priced horses won most of the races. The post showing of a dash in the closing race caused the judges to have jockey Carroll before them and he was cautioned.

Jockeys Whispen and McCarthy furnished an incident in the fourth when the former belabored McCarthy with his whip while rounding the first turn because of persistence in attempting to crowd other horses. The judges warned the riders.

MR. BRADLEY IS OPTIMISTIC.

Lexington, Ky., April 11.—E. R. Bradley is here to spend a day or two at Idle Hour Farm. He is optimistic concerning the New York situation and does not believe that the Agnew-Perkins bill will be passed. Mr. Bradley will return to New York in time to see James Butler's colors go to the post for the first time at Aqueduct Saturday. He will start either Bobs, Compliment or Dartworth. These Mr. Bradley regards as the pick of the Butler two-year-olds.

Messrs. T. J. and G. H. Clay have engaged jockey Howard to ride Fanny Kemble in the Breeders' Futurity.

James B. Haggin's Tradition has a bay colt by Watercrest at Elmendorf Farm.

J. R. Respass' mare, Bessie Spahr, foaled a chestnut colt by Dick Welles at John D. Carr's farm last night.

Ethel D. worked a mile at the Kentucky Association course today in 1:42.

James B. Haggin and John Mackey are expected this week from New York for a visit to Elmendorf Farm.

The annual show of stallions was held today at the Fair Grounds. There were no thoroughbreds on exhibition, the show being confined to trotters, saddlers and draft horses.

NO MORE TIME FOR RACING MATTERS.

Ottawa, Ont., April 11.—In the House of Commons, Captain W. A. Waller asked Sir Wilfrid Laurier, premier, whether he would be accorded the privilege of proceeding with his bill limiting the duration of race meetings in Canada. He thought that, in view of the general accord of the members on the question of such limiting, the bill might be taken up and passed without much discussion.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier replied: "We have given a good deal of time to racing and I do not feel inclined to give any more."

MEXICAN GOVERNMENT FOSTERING RACING.

Reports to the Contrary Nothing but Stupid Fakes—Col. Winn Enthusiastic Over Juarez Prospects.

San Francisco, Cal., April 11.—The full text of the telegram received by President Thomas H. Williams from Senor Alce De la Arena, chief executive of the racing affairs of the Mexican Jockey Club, is as follows: "Galveston story of revocation of Jockey Club Juarez concession and abandonment of thoroughbred racing there and in Mexico absurdly false. Article stupidly incorrect and betrays such profound ignorance that it refutes itself. Government plans previously announced for creation of a great thoroughbred stud in republic within next decade will be carried out. Understood here that racing will be resumed at Juarez middle of next November and continue for five months, with augmented stakes and purses. Interested Mexicans, including government officials, gratified over inaugural season's results at Juarez."

New York, April 11.—"Juarez will be the winter racing center of the world." This is the opinion of Col. Matt J. Winn, who is in New York after having spent the winter at Juarez as manager of the new Mexican race course. He is confident that before two years have passed, the cream of horsemen will carry colors at Juarez and that the course will be a Mecca for turfites and tourists. "When the season ended at Juarez," said Mr. Winn, "everybody left satisfied. We are coming back," were the parting words. "This is the highest compliment that could be paid a racing association, and we are naturally proud. Our initial season was as good as expected. We did not make any money, but we are satisfied. Our venture was well received and there is no doubt of future success."

"Juarez is well adapted as a racing center. In the first place, the citizens feel kindly toward us. The climate is all that could be asked. We were unfortunate in running foul of a snow storm last winter, but it was the first time it snowed there within the memory of the oldest native. We did not have one sick horse during the meeting. This is a testimonial to the weather and pure air. We did not have an over-abundance of horses, but they were so benefited by the climatic conditions that they raced frequently. The course is one of the prettiest on the continent. The stand is built of concrete and steel and the stalls of adobe clay. This adobe is fireproof and is cool in summer and warm in the cooler weather. We are making arrangements to construct 500 additional stalls for next season. The course is one mile and an eighth in circumference and has a mile chute. The track is lightning fast. Next season you will surely see many American records go to smash. It was nothing unusual for platers to reel off a mile in 1:38."

"The Mexicans take kindly to racing. The affair was conducted on such a high scale that the society folks were present daily. Many of them were so influenced by the sport that they purchased stallions and mares with the intention of establishing breeding farms. With these people working with us and with a twenty-year concession for next season, the course is bound to be successful. The attendance was all that could be expected for a new venture. It impressed the folks of El Paso so favorably that a modern hotel is in process of erection in the Texas city. Plans are also being drawn for a hostelry in Juarez."

"We gave away daily an average of $2,000, and next year it is our intention to increase the purses. This will be a strong magnet for horsemen. Early in the season there were reports that the merchants of El Paso were against racing. This is false. All the leading business people of that city are in favor of the venture. In fact, the Chamber of Commerce came out strongly in favor of the Juarez track. The most important thing about Juarez racing is that it is run strictly for sport. There is no room for the big gambler. A meeting of the officials will be held in New York within a few days, when plans will be formulated for next season."

WALDO FOR THE CAMDEN HANDICAP.

Louisville, Ky., April 11.—Trainer Raleigh Colston has received instructions from C. L. Harrison to prepare Waldo to start in the Camden Handicap at Lexington. Joe Morris, John Furlong, Vreeland, Boca Boca, Boca Grande and other Kentucky Derby candidates are also in the race and are now counted upon as being sure starters.

At present it is regarded as probable that the Kentucky Derby field will come from the following eligibles: Waldo, Joe Morris, G. M. Miller, Boca Grande, Donan, Don Antonio, Fighting Bob, Gallant Pirate, Eye White and Topland, with Boca Boca and The Fad likeliest of the remaining eligibles. There were some lively doings at Churchill Downs Saturday. The Derby candidates, Waldo, Fighting Bob and Topland, worked halves and five-eighths in fair time. All of the trainers took advantage of the favorable weather, and while no exceptionally fast work was attempted, there were some fair moves.

The fastest work of the morning was by Zenan. The Schulte mare worked a mile in 1:44, fighting for her head. This is the best mile worked at Churchill Downs this spring and shows that the trainers are getting ready to send their horses along at a lively clip. The Schulte string was shipped east later in the day.

Raleigh Colston had Waldo out for work. The son of Planudes went five-eighths in 1:08, pulled up at the end. He went the first eighth in 13, worked a quarter in 25 and three-eighths in 58, finishing out the half mile in 51. The horse worked kindly and when he went off the track a majority of the turfmen at the Downs expressed the opinion that he had the Derby at his mercy. He was accompanied by Berry Maid, which worked in 1:07.

Fighting Bob worked faster than Waldo. He went a half in 49. This was faster than trainer Gass intended, but the colt moved along in handy fashion and showed no ill effects from his good work. The trainers were impressed with the manner in which he went along. He worked out three-quarters in 1:38.

Topland worked a half mile in 50. Pitt-Pat, a youngster from the Van Meter stable, also went four furlongs in 51. The Gerst horses were out, and Hanbridge went a half in 50 and Billy Bolender the same distance in 52.

Donan, the Gerst eligible for the Derby, was worked about a half mile, which he covered in 50. The son of Woolsthorpe has been in training at Nashville and is in fine fettle. Trainer Ham expects great things of this three-year-old and does not fear Waldo. Horsemen at Churchill Downs are favorably impressed with Donan. Colloquy worked five-eighths in 1:06. Pinkola worked a half mile in 51.

John Ferriss has received word from Nashville that the noted broodmare, Kitty Gunn, has been found dead with her foal recently dropped in Sumner County, Tenn. The foal was by the English-bred horse, My Boy II., and was the first foal the celebrated mare has had since 1907, when she had a colt, a half-brother to Oiseau, by My Boy II.

Kitty Gunn will forever live in turf annals, as she produced in Oiseau and Streamer two high-class horses. Streamer during his turf career won a number of brilliant races and was a racer of merit, while Oiseau was a sensational horse, second only in his three-year-old form to J. R. Keene's remarkable colt, Sysonby.

ELEVEN STARTERS FOR THE CARTER.

Horsemen Expect Good Fields for Opening Day of the New York Season at Aqueduct Next Friday.

New York, April 11.—The thoroughbred will come forth from his winter's retirement at the Aqueduct track next Friday, the first day on which racing can be held legally in this state. The Carter Handicap is the first big turf event of the season. It will serve to usher in the sport to the local race-goers. It is worth $2,500. Its last winner, in 1908, was Jack Atkin. Last year there was no spring meeting at Aqueduct and the Carter Handicap was not run. In the list of eligibles for this season's running are such horses as King James, Jack Atkin and Restigouche. It can be said on authority that King James will not be the reliance of Sam Hildreth for the Carter. Hildreth expects to win the race with Restigouche. With that object in view he has been sending the Keene castoff along sharply in his training gallops in order to have the big black horse ready for the struggle. Jack Atkin will probably go to the post favorite. This veteran sprinter seems to have found in Florida, where he wintered, the fountain of perpetual youth, for he showed there all of his old-time speed and vigor and won at a mile in 1:39, carrying 142 pounds.

A horse train will be established between Sheepshead Bay, Belmont Park and Aqueduct with the opening of the Aqueduct meeting. Some few years ago this service was established for the convenience of the horsemen who did not stable at the track over which races were being conducted, and it has been a particularly well patronized service. Trains will leave both Sheepshead Bay and the Belmont Park track at 11:30 each day and will return after the last race. The trains carry passenger coaches as well as the horse cars and the schedules are arranged to suit the demands of the horsemen. Entries for the opening day of the season will close at the Aqueduct track, but Secretary Reibherger has arranged for an entry clerk to be on hand at the other tracks, Sheepshead Bay, Gravesend and Belmont Park, to secure entries.

The program arranged for the Aqueduct meeting is one calculated to bring together big fields, the races being for the most part at distances of less than a mile, conditions that make them doubly attractive to horsemen. The same rule of short distances is found and none of the races is at a greater distance than a mile. The two-year-olds have many chances, there being twenty-four races for the juvenile racers in the twelve days of racing.

When the bugle calls the horses to the post for the Carter Handicap at Aqueduct next Friday, turfmen say the field will include Jack Atkin, Nicol up; Dalmatian, E. Dugan up; Grasmere, Butwell up; Alfred Noble, V. Powers up; Prince Imperial, Garner up; Prince Ahmed, rider not engaged; Magazine, Fain up; Glorio, Noster up; Thane, McGee up; Besom, Covey up; and Arassee, Glass up.

J. W. May, who recently arrived at Sheepshead Bay with the string he is training for Morton and Charles Schwartz, has two sick colts in the lot. Saturday one of them had a fever that reached 104 and the other's temperature was 102. They were taken sick on the trip from Kentucky and, though the fever has reached the danger mark, May is hopeful that both of them will recover. The two-year-olds that May brought east were all trained in Kentucky before being shipped and most of them have shown halves in 49.

P. T. Chinn's horses are quartered at Aqueduct, having arrived from Jacksonville. Chinn has some promising two-year-olds, including Red Wine, a colt by Ethelbert—Dancing Wave; Judge Monk, a son of Ben Brush—Early and Often, and V. Powers, a colt by Matchless—Cosmo. Chinn has a contract for Jockey Vincent Powers, who has been given a license from the Jockey Club. As S. C. Hildreth may not have the services of Jockey Shilling for some time he may secure second call on Powers, who rode for him last year.

Saturday was school day for the two-year-olds in the stable of Thomas Welsh at Gravesend and the young racers had a long session of instruction at the barrier. In all, thirty two-year-olds were given barrier instruction. They were brought out in two sets of fifteen each. Instruction at the barrier is an important part of the education of a young horse and lack of experience there has frequently cost a good colt a race, while an inferior one has time and again been returned winner early in the year just because of his astuteness at the starting gate. The Welsh two-year-olds were walked up to the barrier several times and allowed to become thoroughly familiar with the tape when they had learned that lesson Welsh had them walk up and come to a stand before he sprung the barrier. Before he was through with the instruction he had his young racers break from a standing start and work quarters in 12.

Mary Davis worked a half mile at Sheepshead Bay Saturday in 47, which is by far the fastest work shown at any of the Long Island tracks this spring. She went the first quarter in 23 and three-eighths in 35. Cohort went right along with the mare and his move was equally impressive.

THIRTY LEADING JOCKEYS.

Of the jockeys who monopolize the first half-dozen places in the list of leaders for 1910, Glasner was the only one seen in the saddle last week. He added five firsts to his record. The honors of the week fell to jockey Ganz, who is to do the lightweight riding for James R. Keene's powerful stable in the east. Ganz, who is riding at Jacksonville, piloted eight winners during the week. The record of the thirty leading riders from January 1 to and including the racing of Saturday last is as follows:

JAMESTOWN HAS A FUTURE

PRESENT MEETING ENOUGH OF A SUCCESS TO WARRANT SUCH BELIEF.

Opinion Prevails That Virginia Track Will Hereafter Open and Close Eastern Season—Favorites Continue to Win.

Norfolk, Va., April 11.—Three favorites, a second choice and an outsider made up the list of winners at the Jamestown Jockey Club course today. King Avondale, considered to have the first race at his mercy, was easily beaten by Osorine, backed from 4 to 1 to 15 to 5. Pins and Needles ran an improved race. After acting fractionally at the post the old mare got away fairly well. Musgrave sent her right along, kept her within hailing distance of the pace and, catching the leaders on the home turn, came away to win easily. Havre, being backed from 3 to 5 to 1 to 2, was bid up to $500 by R. J. Gilmore, but was protected by his owner with the usual $5 advance.

Doris Ward, at 12 to 1, got up in time to beat the pacesetter, Jack Ryan, and the odds-on favorite, Marsamara, in the second race. P. S. P. Randolph's Dander easily took the fourth purse after being backed from 2 to 1 to 7 to 5.

The Jamestown track is destined to open and close the racing season in the east under the jurisdiction of the Jockey Club. That is the belief of turfmen who have patronized the racing held here this spring. In spite of many drawbacks, the attendance is improving daily, and the crowd of Saturday clinched the meeting proposed for the fall.

This is now assured, and horsemen will be offered in November fifteen days of racing, with purses similar in value to those hung up at Pinlico. Manager Robert Levy, the backer of the present meeting, will lose about $7,000 on his venture this spring. This loss was not due to lack of appreciation or support by the Norfolkians, but largely represents payments of debts incurred during the running of former meetings.

Before starting the present session of racing Manager Levy paid up all outstanding bills. This proved to be a good stroke of business policy, for instead of being harassed by unfriendly feeling the men behind the commercial interests of the city extended their approval and support. His "pay as you go" policy has extended to the purses, and each night after the day's racing has ended the money won during the afternoon by the horses is paid over to the owners.

"I consider the loss on this meeting trifling," said Manager Levy today. "I had anticipated a loss of $15,000, and was willing to go into my pocket to that extent. Before opening the gates I had canvassed the situation thoroughly. I realized that there were several obstacles to surmount before success would be assured. But now that owners realize that they will be paid the money their horses may win during the season I feel that the money will flock here in the fall. I have lived up to every promise I made this spring and, as far as I know, no owner, trainer, jockey or patron has a kick coming."

LEXINGTON PROGRAM IS COMPLETE.

Lexington, Ky., April 11.—Racing Secretary W. H. Shelley has sent to the printer the program for the spring race meeting which will begin here Saturday, April 30, and close Saturday, May 7, and the books will be ready for distribution the latter part of this week. There will be a feature event for each day's racing, with five other good races for each of the seven days. In addition to the money offered arrangements are being made by which breeders of this vicinity will add contributions of seasons to some of the most famous thoroughbred stallions in the world. These seasons will be made transferable and if the plan is worked out they will, in some cases, more than double the value of the races to which they are added. The Breeders' Futurity for two-year-olds, which, it is believed, will be worth nearly $4,000, will be the special attraction for the first day, while the Camden Handicap, the next richest prize, will be the feature on Tuesday, May 3. The chief event of each day's racing is as follows:

Saturday, April 30—Breeders' Futurity, $1,000 added.
Monday, May 2—The Phoenix Hotel Purse, value $500.
Tuesday, May 3—The Camden Handicap, $1,000 added.

Wednesday, May 4—The Lexington Brewing Company Purse, value $500.
Thursday, May 5—The Breeders' Futurity Consolation, $500 added.
Friday, May 6—A cup race, value $500.
Saturday, May 7—Camden Handicap Consolation, $500 added.

Of the sixty-seven nominations for the Camden Handicap, twenty-eight are still eligible, and it looks almost certain that at least six or eight of the best three-year-olds in the country, including the great Waldo, will start. With the weights skillfully adjusted by Handicapper Shelley and the distance one mile and an eighth, one-eighth shorter than the Kentucky Derby, the race will be a real and exciting try-out for the blue-ribbon event at Churchill Downs, for which nearly all of the entries are also eligible. Although Handicapper Shelley has given no intimation of the weights he will assign, it is generally believed he will pitch the weights approximately on a Derby standard.

THOROUGHBRED BREEDERS WIRE APPEAL.

Lexington, Ky., April 11.—The following telegram, signed by Messrs. Foxhall A. Daingerfield, E. F. Clay, Milton Young, of the Kentucky State Racing Commission, Catesby Woodford, T. C. McDowell, of Breckenridge, V. G. D. Wilson and Desha Breckenridge, was sent today to Senator E. T. Brackett, chairman of the Codes Committee of the New York Senate, with the expectation that it will be read at the hearing on the Agnew-Perkins anti-betting bills at Albany tomorrow.

"Kentucky breeders ask the New York Legislature not to pass anti-oral betting bill. We claim that it will kill thoroughbred horse breeding industry."

DEATH OF AN EPSOM DERBY WINNER.
Just two years ago the Duke of Portland's great thoroughbred stallion, St. Simon, died at the advanced age of twenty-seven years, and on Tuesday afternoon, March 29, his grace had the misfortune to lose another famous sire in Ayrshire. This horse developed a large tumor on the outside of his quarters, rendering him useless for stud purposes, and he had to be destroyed.

Bred in 1885, Ayrshire was a bay son of that stout horse, Hampton, out of the Galopin mare, Atalanta, and he stood at the Egerton Stud, Newmarket, at a fee of $1,000. The horse had a most successful career on the turf in the colors of the Duke of Portland, he winning as a two-year-old such important races as the Chesterfield Stakes, Goodwood, Prince of Wales Stakes, Goodwood, and the Champagne Stakes, Doncaster.

The following season Ayrshire captured the Two Thousand Guineas, following up this classic success by a great victory in the Epsom Derby. He, however, was not destined to win the much-coveted triple crown by scoring in the St. Leger, the great Doncaster race falling to the late Lord Calthorpe's Seabreeze. Ayrshire, however, in 1889 captured the Epsom Stakes of $50,000.

His career at the stud was a successful one, and his most distinguished progeny were Ails and Graces and Our Lassie (both winners of the Oaks), Ballantrae (winner of the Cambridgeshire), and Robert le Diable (winner of the City and Suburban).

MORRIS PARK STABLES BURNED.
New York, April 11.—There occurred yesterday
the most extensive fire, in point of area covered, that New York City has ever known. Two miles of buildings were burned, and yet with only a nominal loss.
The destroyed structures were the stables of the abandoned Morris Park race track. That the fire was incendiary in origin was indicated by the fact that flames broke out simultaneously on the north, east and south sides of the track. Morris Park, in days gone by, was one of the most beautiful race courses in the country and was famous as a "society" track. The growth of New York City northward rendered the tract of land valuable for building purposes, and a part of it already has been built upon. The old stables and paddock were soon to have been razed. Recently Morris Park has been used as a trying-out place for aeroplanes and dirigibles.

MANY HORSES QUARTERED AT PIMLICO.
Already Enough on Hand to Start the Meeting and More to Come—Touchwood Training Soundly.

Baltimore, Md., April 11.—There are already enough horses at Pimlico to start a race meeting.
There has never been a meeting here that has attracted so many owners so long before the opening, while more are to come. With such stables on hand
as those of Barney Schreiber, H. L. Shaw, William Garth, Thomas Clyde, Amos Turner, C. C. Smithson, Courtlandt H. Smith, Harry Rites, G. A. Brouder, W. J. Wilson, John F. Bartlett, G. R. Tompkins,
Dr. J. S. Tyree, W. M. Kerr, E. Madison Mitchell,
Jerry Murphy, P. Gallagher, Pat Moran, T. Wright,
William Gehring, Henry McCarthy, George Gardin, T. F. Coles, George Sherman and J. J. Fahey, the meeting should be a big success, not only from a flat-racing standpoint, but also for the steeplechase feature.

These are all regulars at Pimlico, and as there is not much more at the track the opening day's card will doubtless be one of the most attractive ever arranged here. Despite the conflict with Aqueduct some of the stars of the turf will be seen in action here. Among the stables which will be shipped to Pimlico at the close of the Jamestown meeting will be those belonging to David Dunlop, G. W. Carmack, Frank McCabe, Hugh Penny, Frank Lightfoot and
the second division of the Garth, Smithson and Coles stables that are being banded in their races here by Smithson and Lewis, Garth.

These are still more races to come from Benning and from Jacksonville, where the closing of the meeting at Monroeville Park on April 16 will give the horsemen at Pimlico ample time to ship to Pimlico for the inaugural day's sport.
Touchwood, David Dunlop's steeplechaser, will be among the favorites that will parade through the field to the starting point in the jumping races to be run during the meeting at Pimlico. According to the latest reports from Jamestown, where John W.
Pauls has the Dunlop horses in training, Touchwood is showing no signs of the breaking down that put him out of commission last fall shortly before the opening of the race meeting here. It was at Richmond that the chestnut by Norwood collapsed.
Trainer Pauls sent him to the Dunlop farm in Petersburg, Va., where Touchwood recovered.

It is probable that Mr. Dunlop will engage Dick Saffel to ride Touchwood, as it was Saffel who piloted the horse in several of his victories last season. Saffel is now at Pimlico and will ride during the meeting as a free lance. Saffel is a Virginian, and as the racing contingent from the Old Dominion generally sticks mostly close together, Saffel will not likely be on the ground much during the running of the cross-country events. Dunlop will bring a formidable string here at the close of the Jamestown meeting, including the two-year-old, Master
John, Takahira and Bess Fitzhugh, with which Mr.
Dunlop expects to win the Claburn Memorial.

Dr. J. S. Tyree is to be represented in the Claburn Memorial by two entries, but he has not yet determined which they will be. He has six two-year-olds, one a bay filly by Filigrane—Asaline, a brown colt by St. Dory—Annie Woodward, a brown colt by Providence—Pomona, a chestnut filly by Knight of the Thistle—Miss Hanover, a chestnut colt by Nasturtium—Handicap and a chestnut colt by Dublin—Rose Washington. All of the youngsters have been showing an excellent turn of speed in their early training at Benning. The old horses in the Tyree stable are Check and Indian Hunter, and both look well.

Henry McCarthy is here with Rose Beaumont, Miss O'Toole and a two-year-old colt by Orlando. Rose Beaumont, on her work at Benning, ought to be good enough to win here and McCarthy thinks she will.
Henry Craven, trainer for the Neville estate of Virginia, is at the track with ten horses from the Neville farm in Virginia. Among those that will race in the colors of the late Colonel Neville will be Harpist II., Heronold and Ticket of Leave. Heron-old was one of the best fencers around New York two or three years ago. He was third to Good and Plenty and Grandpa in the Grand National Steeplechase in 1906 at Belmont Park, while shortly after that he won a good race over the same course.

John F. Bartlett, the local turfman, who owns Live Wire, Rostrom, St. Regis and other horses, is mourning the loss of the two-year-old, Hat Brush, which colt died at Pimlico yesterday. This youngster was by Ben Strome and was a victim of lung fever, which it is thought he contracted coming from Florida. Hat Brush was named in the Pimlico Nursery and Mr. Bartlett and his trainer, Walter Condon, thought well of him.

It is announced by trainer John Powers that Jack Atkin will positively go to the post in the Carter Handicap, to be run on the opening day of the Aqueduet meeting Friday.

NON DE PLUME ABANDONED.
New York, April 11.—Richard T. Wilson, Jr., president of the Saratoga Association, has registered a partnership in his stable with Mrs. Wilson for the coming season. The strong string now being fitted by Thomas J. Healey at Belmont Park are: Falcada, Beaucoup, May River, Olambala, Mexonna, Radium
Star, Candleberry, Brushbroom, Azular, Responsul,
Projectile and the two-year-olds Almatama, Agawam,
Cherish, Fort Worth, Omeager, Owanux, Semi-Quaver, Cuthunk, Gunstick, Hincham, Nauson, Dorchester,
Myrtle River, Limpet, Mr. Jingle, Abound, Sheriff Bradley, Amali, Old Boy and Piantasque. These twenty young racers were purchased from John E.
Madden last summer and Mr. Wilson confidently expects to have some topnotchers in such an array. In recent years Mr. Wilson has been racing in the name of the Montpelier Stable, but for the coming season the horses will be raced in his own name.
Mr. Wilson will also return to his old colors of old gold, green chevrons, collar, cuffs and cap. During the period that he raced in the name of the Montpelier Stable he was thrown a censure of the Association and the trimmings for the old gold silks were in black.

FATALITY ATTENDS PARLIAMENTARY RACE.
London, Eng., April 11.—The Parliamentary Steeplechases, which have not been run for three years, were revived on Saturday and were attended by a fatal accident. The races were held at Epping in the presence of a great crowd of legislators, race-men, prominent government officials and others.
Sir William Grantham, judge of the Queens Bench
division of the High Court of Justice, and the Rt.
Hon. James William Lowther, speaker of the house, acted as judges.
At the principal event of the day, the House of Commons race, there were fourteen starters, the Hon. Neil Finlrose, the youngest son of the Earl of Rosbery, and Viscount Castlereagh being the favorites. While leading at a fast pace, the horse ridden by the septuagenarian member, the Rt. Hon.
James Grantham, of Cheshire, fell at a fence. Mr.
Finlrose was thrown, sustained a concussion of the brain and died yesterday.

GET STEEPLECHASE ASSOCIATION LICENSES.
New York, April 11.—At a recent meeting of the stewards of the National Steeplechase and Hunt
Association, the following licenses were granted:
Gentlemen riders—Malcolm Stevenson, A. A.
Fowler, Dion Kerr, Herbert B. Shaw, R. M. Taylor and Lewis Garth.
Trainers—Tom Wilson, H. Filpenn, Robert Boyle,
L. Fuller, Page Stephenson, Bea Pope, W. H. Henry,
William Hogan, W. L. Stone, W. C. Hayes, Fred
Parsons, W. F. Presgrave and William Martin.
Jockeys—R. P. Ryan, Harvey Boyle, William Patterson, George B. Cochran, Tom Wilson, T. J. Donohue, Robert King, W. H. Henry, A. Jackson, H. I.
Saffel and A. B. Davidson.

NOTES OF THE TURF.
Billie Hibbs is a swaback.

Judge John Morrow died at his home in Nashville, Tenn., Sunday.

The good mare, Rosomonde, has been mated with Barney Schreiber's Deutschland in California this spring.

There will be a dispersal sale of the horses belonging to the estate of the late Robert Neville at Pimlico April 25.

G. A. Blankenship, owner of the Stockton Ranch Stable, has taken out a trainer's license at Oakland and will handle his own string in future.

The Prix des Villas, run at Saint Cloud, in France, yesterday, was won by W. K. Vanderbilt's Sir Peter.
Mr. Vanderbilt's Ramesses finished second in the Prix Simonian.

James R. Keene's nominations in twenty stakes at Saratoga are so numerous that even if every horse were to be at once declared out he would be liable for $2,785 in forfeits.

President G. M. Hendrie of the Windsor Racing Association expects that dates for the summer meeting at Windsor will be allotted for July, and that the stakes will follow the program of previous years.

S. W. Street has arrived at Aqueduct from Jacksonville with Vallonia, Hawklike and Sepoy Maid and will open a public stable, with the idea of confining his racing to the eastern courses this season.

Jerry Welsh is busy every morning with the barrier at the Gravesend track. There will be no excuses for the Gravesend two-year-olds when they face the barrier at Aqueduct so far as schooling is concerned.

A. J. Gorey, from Jacksonville, with Old Honesty and four other horses; Thomas Stevens, from Tampa, with fourteen in his string, and Mr. Haskins, from Harrodsburg, Ill., with seven horses, arrived at Latonia Friday.

It is said that the reason the Jamaica spring meeting has been transferred to Aqueduct is that W. H. Reynolds, president of the Metropolitan Jockey Club, because of a European trip, could not take personal charge.

Several of the gentlemen riders who participated in the amateur races at Jacksonville the past winter will apply for licenses from the National Steeplechase and Hunt Association. Among them are Mr.
Donald Pons and Mr. F. Orrell, of St. Louis.

Frank Regan has arrived at Gravesend from Jacksonville with Andri, his own horse, and the J. A.
Bennet string, made up of Sandpiper and the two-year-olds, Aldivia and Albetto. They are quartered in the Bennet stable on the boulevard side of the track.

The Canadian Associated Press cables that Kinz Edward's Minoru is a stronger favorite than ever for the City and Suburban Handicap at Epsom, being now quoted at 4 to 1. Dean Swift, the top weight, is 100 to 8. Sir Bold 100 to 8. Strickland 20 to 1 and Wolfe Land the same price.

August Belmont's Norman III., ridden by Danny Maher, and Harry Payne Whitney's Perseus III., ridden by "Skeets" Martin, ran unplaced in the race for the Spring Cup at Newbury, England. The race was won by Lord Camarvon's Valens, with A. Stead-all's Orpheus second and Sir E. Cassel's Temeraire third. There were sixteen starters.

The hearing on the Agnew anti-betting bills, also the bill which proposes to repeal that section of the Percy-Gray law which exempts officials of racing associations from responsibility for pool-selling within the enclosure, will be held before the Grand Commissioners of the St. Lawrence County, N. Y., on Monday next, April 18.

Emperor Napoleon, a three-year-old half-brother to Richard Croker's Derby winner, Orby, recently won his first race in England. It was an ordinary $500 purse. This colt was sold as a yearling by Mr.
Croker for $17,500, largely on the strength of his relationship to the Derby winner. He is owned by F. J. Benson and is by Lesterlin or Clonmell—Rhoda
B.

In the most recently claimed names for the new two-year-olds some excellent selections have been made. A son of Hamburg and Ascension has been named Monoplane. Matinee is the name of a daughter of Broomstick and Audience. The son of Husky and Brav' Louis is appropriate. He is named Husky Lad, and Distinction is the choice for a daughter of Orlando and Renown.
